Our fiction book this half term is 'If all the World Were....' by Joseph Coelho

If you can read any extracts from it online or manage to get hold of a copy it's a moving, lyrical picture book about a young girl's love for her granddad and how she copes when he dies, written by poet and playwright Joseph Coelho. This beautifully illustrated, powerful and ultimately uplifting text is the ideal way to introduce children to the concept of death and dying, particularly children who have lost a grandparent. It is very important to share this story with empathy and care.

The author of this text has many other poems online and on his youtube channel.

Our non-fiction book is 'All About Orangutans' which is an ebook. Find out about where they live in the wild, how they survive and live and what they do. Find out about the conservation work happening in the world to help the species.

Science	Find out about how a plant grows and what it needs to stay healthy.

Year 2 Summer 1 learning

Plant some seeds and look after them, giving them sun, light and water to keep them healthy.

You could draw stages of your plants growth, from a seed to it fully grown and then what happens?

Go into your garden if you can at different times of the day and see how the plants have changed overtime.

Open the PDF'S below.

Art

Our topic is all about colour and creating colour in patterns and shapes.

First which are the primary colours?

How do we make our secondary colours?

Use paints to mix them to make new colours.

Add white to create different lighter tones of one colour.

Add black to create different darker tones of one colour.

Create your own colour wheel.

Use this link to see a great video about the colour wheel. You could make your own using a paper plate.

Music

Listen to, and evaluate, some music by our class composers - our classical composer Ravel and our contemporary composer Bob Marley.

Bob Marley songs we were going to learn and maybe you could still at home : one love & 3 little birds.

Could you research them both and write a few facts about them

Maybe you could watch how Torvill and Dean the ice skaters won gold at the Olympics for Britain using the music of Ravel, 'Bolero'
