

English: P2W

Can we save the tiger? Pupils will be learning all about how amazing the tiger and other animals are and how we MUST try to save them. Pupils will be writing their own booklet based on an amazing animal Geography This half term, Year 6 children will be learning about the population. They will learn about all of the factors that change the population around the world.

population
densely populated sparsely populated

Maths:

Power Maths 6A book, Daily Maths fluency. Pupils will be focussing on Fractions and Measures this half term.

Music:

Charanga lessons with Mrs Walton.

RE: Pupils will be debating whether religion and science are in conflict.

Autumn 2 Year 6

PSHE: This half term children will be celebrating their differences and thinking about different perceptions of what people think being 'normal' means.

PE: Pupils will be following the Get Set PE scheme and partaking in swimming for a two week block this half term.

DT: Textiles – Children will be looking at what their clothes are made from, how and where they are made and combine fabrics themselves.

Spanish:

In Spanish this term pupils will be expressing likes and dislikes about school in Spanish.

Computing: Pupils will become coders and make their own game of 'Crossy Roads.' They will test their own game and allow others to play it while giving feedback.

Reading:P2R Into the jungle and Martha's Suitcase. Children will learn all about Martha's travels and reading the modern classic of Rudyard Kipling's famous characters.

Science: Evolution and

Inheritance: Pupils will learn that there are differences between organisms from different species, and this is called variation

