

English:

"Seal Surfer" by Michael Foreman tells the story of a boy who forms a special bond with a seal and learns to surf, despite his disability. Through his adventures, the book explores themes of nature, resilience, and family connections. empathy, overcoming challenges, and appreciating the natural world. Children will write a letter from the boy to his grandfather, describing the key events he has missed. This activity encourages descriptive writing and emotional expression

PSHE:

Being me in my world. Children will also learn about everyone's right to education and the importance of showing empathy and care for others' emotions.

Spanish:

Spanish greetings..
Children will learn how to start simple conversations.

RE:

In RE children will be learning about what the Bible is.

Maths:

Unit 1-Place value within 1,000

Unit 2 and 3- Addition and subtraction

Unit 4- Multiplication and division.

We will also be focusing on our 2x and 5x tables.

Music:

Monday afternoon recorders

Autumn 1
Year 3

PE:Netball . Dance-
Yoga

Children learn teamwork, coordination, strategic thinking, communication, and physical fitness when being taught netball and hockey skills

Computing:

My online life.
Children will be learning about internet safety and how to keep themselves safe online

Art:

We will be exploring growing artists. Children will have an opportunity to develop their artistic skills in shading, botanical drawing and abstract fl

Geography:

In Geography, we'll journey across the globe to discover the Amazon Rainforest. The children will learn about its unique ecosystems, diverse wildlife, and the importance of rainforests to our world

Science:

Complimenting our Stone Age focus, children will learn about three different types of rock (igneous, sedimentary and metamorphic) and begin to understand their properties. Children will learn how fossils are formed over time.

Guided Reading:

We'll explore "The Sea Book' by Charlotte Winer. This is a non-fiction book that explores ocean life, marine ecosystems, and the importance of ocean conservation. Children can study it to learn about sea creatures, environmental issues like pollution, and how to protect our oceans, fostering awareness and responsibility for nature